

Dear Mr. Powell,

I just wanted to know how the telecommunications industries donations to your father's foundation have been coming along?

Do you feel more obligated to these, so called, business elite?

Is lifting the cross ownership rule your personal way of giving back to those that have donated so much?

You are pretty obvious.